The courses will be 3 Saturdays hosted on the campus of The Compass Church and taught by a Northern Seminary professor. Each class session will be 6 hours long and run during Northern's academic term. Each course will have a mid-term and final exam which is completed online.

Students are not obligated to take each course listed in the program, however, students that complete all of the program courses will receive a Certificate in Christian Leadership from Northern Seminary and will be invited to participate in graduation, if they choose.

Courses offered 2011-2012

Exploring the Bible – Oct. 8, 22 & Nov. 5, 2011

This course will introduce students to both the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament. The course will focus on the literary and theological themes of the Bible as well as provide students with guidelines for the study of the biblical material in its literary, historical, cultural, and social contexts.

OT Survey (Old Testament) – Jan. 14, 28 & Feb. 11, 2012

Exploring the Old Testament is designed to provide students a strong overview of the Old Testament. The Pentateuch, Former Prophets, and Wisdom Literature provide categories of study through which students will venture deeper into the history, teachings, and background of the Old Testament.

NT Survey (Exploring the New Testament) – Apr. 14, 28 & May 12, 2012

Exploring the New Testament will provide an overview of the themes and background of the New Testament. Students will grow in both their knowledge and understanding of the Gospels as well as the writings of Paul and other New Testament writers.
